

mokaa

The
land of opportunity

125 years of Indians in Aotearoa

August 13th to August 24th 2018

Christchurch City Council Foyer
53 Hereford St
Christchurch Central

Indians in New Zealand have a humble but rich heritage and equally is very much part of New Zealand's history

True stories with over 100 compelling and rarely seen photographs of NZ Indian settlement. From the first Indian presence to pioneering settlers to established communities in New Zealand.

Supported by

THE OFFICE OF
ethnic communities
Te Tari Matawaka

Open Daily
Free Admission

Share your story

New Zealand Indian Community Archives is a digital library of the NZ Indian community by documenting, preserving, and sharing stories that represent their unique and diverse experiences.

Visit us on nzica.org

New Zealand
Indian Community Archives

Archiving Indian Communities right here in New Zealand